Toledo turned the tables on Wheeling yesterday, winning by the small score of 2 to 1. The visitors won in the first inning, when they scored their runs. Pardee started out to do the twirling, but the first two men to the bat rapped him hard, planting out a single and a three-bagger, and the ex-Western leaguer was taken out and Poole substituted. Pardee lost the game, for the three-baser Hartman got from him sent home Kane, who had singled, and he later crossed the plate with the sec-

He is a born ball player, knowing always what to do and at what time. Few pitchers filled their position so well.

And Ewing also pitched a masterly game. For five innings he was a Chinese puzzle and as hard to find as Aguinaldo. Pequinney in that period managed to get a measly scratch hir, but the others were unable to conn They found him for two inities sixth, and for one in the eighth, offic latter was fruitful of the solitary run. Pat Meaney singled, stole second, was advanced on Lyons' base on balls and tallied on an out to right field. They went down in the ninth, one, two, three.

A double-header with Toledo will be played this afternoon, with Skopec and McGinniss, late of the Atlantic league, on the slab for the locals. Score of John Boyles is the name of an old fellow arrested and locked up for stealing ename! ware. He is fifty-eight years of age, and was employed at the Enterprise works as fireman at the kilns and also as Sunday watchman. He worked at nights. He was not thought to be overly bright at first and they were disposed to be lenient with him, but Marshal Johnston thought he discovered an influence back of the old fellow and proceeded to investigate, only to find that in addition to the large amount of stuff found in the old fellow; home cellar, he had several times shipped iarge baskets of this ware to St. Clairaville and to one or two other places, where it was sold. Boyles has a wife and seven children, and three or four of them work in the enamel plants. The old man was caught with a sack full of goods. The company places its loss at about $50.

Along the line of a new coal works to be opened up south of town, as suggested yesterday, the Independent says: W. J. Morgan, who recently purchased the Shaver coal tract south of town, and immediately south of the Pittsburgh-Ohio mine, has contracted for treaties, tipples, etc. The same parties furnishing the fron work for the Rose & Morgan mine will put up the fron work. Mr. Joseph Crow has charge of the timber work. The mine will be operated by electricity in hauling and hoisting and most of the mining will be done with machines. The Pennsylvania company is arranging to put in sidings and it is expected the mine will be in operation by the first of October. The marriage of Joseph A. Cooper and Miss Eva Lichtenberger at the home of the bride's parents yesterday at noon, was a very happy occasion. Rev. E. A. Simons, and Rev. O. W. BASE BALL COMMENT

There will be a double-header this afternoon, the first game beginning at 2 McGinniss, the Atlantic leaguer, will make his debut for Wheeling, and Johnny Skopec will shoot them over in the other game.

Toledo and Wheeling are putting up as fast a standard of ball as can be found in the National League and today's games, which close the series, should draw a big crowd.

Taylor's one-hand stop yesterday v a wonderful piece of work, and it was the stellar feature of the game.

met with renewed efforts by Harvard But Yale clung tenaciously to her lead. At the two miles Yale, rowing 32, led Harvard by nearly a length. It began to look like a Yale victory. Harvard stroke, Harding, who took Captain Higginson's place after the latter's accident on Sunday last, increased the crimson stroke at a rush which bade fair to take his colleagues of their nerves. He sot a terrible clip, and the whole Haryard crew worked like demons possessed. Yale undertook to meet this spurt, but the pace was too hot and Yale wisely decided to husband her strength for later calls. Inch by inch Harvard pulled up, then foot by foot, and at the three mile flag, the Harvard shell went to the fore the first time since she had lost the lead at the start. Harvard was leading by half a length. Suddenly there came a break in the crimson eight. Somthing was wrong with the Cambridge stroke. His oar falled at times to strike the water. A few sec-onds later the Harvard boat quivered and trembled. Up went Harding's oar and over-toppled his exhausted body. Coxswain Wadleigh pulled his rudder ropes sharply to one side and shouted to his men who did their best to relieve the lopsidedness of the machine

Poor Harding, the boy who was under the strain of the responsibility placed upon his shoulders by the Higginson mishap had rowed himself out in that last heartrending effort to pull upon the Yale shell. The young Spartan, garding the fact that during the last three days he had lost five pounds, had pulled his last ounce and lay a helpless passenger in the shell. He fell into the lap of his coxswain
